

Curriculum Sequencing - Year 10

Year 10 Autumn Term
Topics covered: An Inspector Calls	How it links to what has been studied before: Students have previously studied this text, these lessons will act as a revision opportunity and the cementing of key concepts and ideas.	How it links to what will be studied: Learning objectives are set according to the AOs within the AQA GCSE specification. The skills developed within these lessons will be transferable in future Learning Support and English lessons.
Key words: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Socialism ● Capitalism ● Responsibility ● Community ● Reputation ● Class ● Change ● Judgement 	Key skills: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Reading comprehension ● Character analysis ● Plot structure ● Inference ● Writing creatively ● Comparing texts ● Understanding context ● Identifying themes ● Presenting ● Listening
Assessment focus <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Independent research ● Character profiles ● Writing creatively ● Writing poetry ● Planning responses ● Class presentations ● Reviews 	Revision tips <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Repetition and overlearning ● Reading practice with comprehension questions ● Multi Sensory and visual aids ● Modelling ● Quizzes ● Creating revision aids such as posters and cue cards
Why we study it: An Inspector calls is an English Literature text studied at GCSE. It draws on topics that are as relevant today as they were historically. Students have the opportunities to consider the impact of community and a capitalist society upon individuals. Students can consider the idea of change.

Year 10 Spring Term
Topics covered: Gothic genre Jekyll and Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson	How it links to what has been studied before: Students have previously studied Gothic Literature in English lessons. We are building upon the assessment objectives covered in the Autumn term.	How it links to what will be studied: Learning objectives are set according to the AOs within the AQA GCSE specification. The skills developed within these lessons will be transferable in future Learning Support and English lessons.
Key words: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Duality ● Religion ● Scientific development ● Evolution ● Reputation ● Good ● Evil 	Key skills: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Reading comprehension ● Character analysis ● Plot structure ● Inference ● Writing creatively ● Comparing texts ● Understanding context ● Identifying themes ● Presenting ● Listening
Assessment focus <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Independent research ● Character profiles ● Writing creatively ● Writing poetry ● Planning responses ● Class presentations ● Reviews 	Revision tips <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Repetition and overlearning ● Reading practice with comprehension questions ● Multi Sensory and visual aids ● Modeling ● Quizzes ● Creating revision aids such as posters and cue cards
Why we study it: Jekyll and Hyde is an English Literature text studied at GCSE. It draws on topics that are as relevant today as they were historically. Students have the opportunities to consider how humans have evolved and whether people are truly good or evil. They will also consider how scientific investigations have impacted our society and world as a whole.

Year 10 Summer Term
Topics covered: GCSE Language Paper 1 and 2 A broad range of appropriate and engaging fiction and non fiction texts	How it links to what has been studied before: Students have previously studied and implemented the skills within the Assessment Objectives for this area of the GCSE exam. These lessons will act as a revision opportunity and the cementing of key concepts and ideas.	How it links to what will be studied: Learning objectives are set according to the AOs within the AQA GCSE specification. The skills developed within these lessons will be transferable in future Learning Support and English lessons.
Key words: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Comprehension ● Words ● Language ● Structure ● Comparison ● Summary ● Devices ● Opinions 	Key skills: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Reading comprehension ● Historical context ● Character analysis ● Plot structure ● Inference ● Writing creatively ● Comparing texts ● Understanding context ● Identifying themes ● Presenting ● Listening
Assessment focus <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Independent research ● Character profiles ● Writing creatively ● Writing poetry ● Planning responses ● Class presentations ● Reviews 	Revision tips <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Repetition and overlearning ● Reading practice with comprehension questions ● Multi Sensory and visual aids ● Modeling ● Quizzes ● Creating revision aids such as posters and cue cards
Why we study it: GCSE English Language focuses on unseen fiction and non fiction texts. Students will have the opportunity to engage in reading and understanding a range of texts and then completing activities that will support their knowledge and understanding of how to explore unseen texts. The students will then be able to build upon these skills and use what they've learned to develop their exam technique in their English lessons.		